This course introduces the fundamentals of 2D character animation for film, television, and games. Topics covered will include the fundamental principles of animation, creating proper body mechanics, and crafting an engaging character performance. Students will use industry standard software for production of traditional 2D cel animation. The course is drawing intensive and students are expected to have significant drawing experience.

Dates of travel: tentatively May 18-26 2024. Cost: TBA. Course consists of weekly class meetings culminating in a Faculty-led Travel Study trip to Iceland. Contact the Center for Global Experiences Coordinator Han Hgo (ngoh@uww.edu) or the course faculty: Dr. Juk Bhattacharyya (bhattachaj@uww.edu) or Dr. Ozgur Yavuzcetin (yavuzceo@uww.edu) for academic requirements or for more information about the course. Applications are due to the Center for Global Education on or before Friday December 1 2023. The application is online at uww.edu/international. As noted on the course application the majority of the estimated course fee will be charged to the student accounts when enrolled by the registrar within the first two weeks of the semester. The program fee will be finalized later in the semester when participants have their travel documents and the university has paid all expenses on behalf of the student. The student accounts will then be adjusted if needed. Travel study registration is not available via WINS registration. Student participants may not add or drop a travel study course via WINS once it has been added to their academic schedule. Failure to abide by the add/drop provisions of the Faculty-led Travel Study Program could result in severe financial penalties. Students are advised to refer to the application for more information on cancellation and refund policies.

The King Chavez Research Seminar course is the understanding, development, and utilization of a system of active learning for the participants of the King/Chavez Scholars Program. Students not only learn about the items noted on the curriculum, but also are engaging to participate in a system where they challenge to learn the content actively with a variety of strategies (i.e., research study groups). There will be emphasis on Undergraduate Research and the development of preliminary research projects in which scholars develop critical thinking skills, reading strategies, research writing skills, as well as enable scholars to design and structure their own research.

Please note this course extends to May 9th, 2024.

Dates of travel: tentatively May 18-26 2024. Cost: TBA. Course consists of weekly class meetings culminating in a Faculty-led Travel Study trip to Iceland. Contact the Center for Global Experiences Coordinator Han Hgo (ngoh@uww.edu) or the course faculty: Dr. Juk Bhattacharyya (bhattachj@uww.edu) or Dr. Ozgur Yavuzcetin (yavuzceo@uww.edu) for academic requirements or for more information about the course. Applications are due to the Center for Global Education on or before Friday December 1 2023. The application is online at uww.edu/international. As noted on the course application the majority of the estimated course fee will be charged to the student accounts when enrolled by the registrar within the first two weeks of the semester. The program fee will be finalized later in the semester when participants have their travel documents and the university has paid all expenses on behalf of the student. The student accounts will then be adjusted if needed. Travel study registration is not available via WINS registration. Student participants may not add or drop a travel study course via WINS once it has been added to their academic schedule. Failure to abide by the add/drop provisions of the Faculty-led Travel Study Program could result in severe financial penalties. Students are advised to refer to the application for more information on cancellation and refund policies.
